

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

GIRL MAY SAVE BANDIT LEADER WHO AIDED HER

Acted As Protector Against His Own Gang, Who Invaded
Her Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Police news says! That's the opinion of Arnold J. Thompson, the bandit chief who protected Mary Conway from the advances of his gang, when they broke into her California home and held high revelry with the rich wines and rare liquors.

Certainly, Mr. Thompson hopes politeness will pay, and now that he is under arrest he is wondering whether Miss Conway, whom he rescued, will not testify that he may obtain clemency at his trial.

When the party of nine men broke into the home, Miss Conway was compelled to entertain the robbers. She played her role unflinchingly, and even turned fortune-teller long enough to read the head bandit's palm. As a reward for her gameness he protected her from the advances of the drunken men.

Elected Himself.

"It's like this," Thompson pointed out, "I wasn't the leader of that gang when we started out. But when the men began drinking I saw right away that there would be trouble unless some one stepped in to keep order. So I elected myself leader."

The drinking was mild at first, for the man turned their full attention to robbing the cellar of rich stores of liquor, said to have been worth $25,000. Then, as they had their booty neatly piled for removal from the house, the thought of sampling the contents of the barrels and bottles occurred to the marauders.

The men grew merrier and merrier. They drank toasts to the health of their vicious little hostess, Miss Conway, realizing that the men must be humored, pretended to fall into the mood of the orgy and read Thompson's fortune from his hand.

"When the gang got drunk, this roughneck Rolling tried to keep getting closer and closer to Miss Conway," said the polite robber, "and when she appealed to me I just naturally got on my mettle. I tried to talk to him at first, but when I saw that argument was useless I just straightened him up and let him have it on the jaw."

Whipped Roughneck.

Thompson was determined that no member of the gang should injure any woman in his presence. Again on two other attempts he had to knock one man out.

"He simply didn't know how to behave," is Thompson's naive way of putting it. "I tried to talk him into being a gentleman, but what can you do with some people who haven't a lick of judgment when they're drinking? I guess the rest of the gang felt the same way I did when they saw what I did to that roughneck."

He was asked why he had been so solicitous of Miss Conway's welfare.

"Women are women," he drawled, "anywhere and any time, and a man has to protect them. Isn't that right?"

OWNERS ARE JUBILANT OVER NEW RACING BOAT

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 3.—

Owners of the new schooner Puritan, built as a contender for the International Fisherman's Cup in the forthcoming elimination races, are jubilant as a result of the speed she showed in starting out for her maiden fishing trip.

In charge of Capt. Jeff Thomas, the schooner left Gloucester for a regulation fishing trip. She was followed for some distance by a power boat, which carried the designer, W. S. Burgess, and members of the Manta Association, which subscribed the money for her construction.

Although the power boat was making eleven knots an hour, the Puritan distanced it and left it behind. It is predicted that she will prove a better boat even than the Bluenose, last year's winner of the cup.

BOSTON CHURCH HOISTS "NO ADMISSION" SIGN

BOSTON, May 3.—"Church crowded. No Admission."

A sign bearing these words was placed outside the door of the Park Street Congregational Church on Easter Sunday, so dense was the crowd that occupied every seat and every inch of standing room before the services commenced. Officers stood near the sign and pointed it out to churchgoers who still sought to crowd into the building.

BOOTLEGGERS HAVE MILK NAMES FOR BOOZE BRANDS

DENVER, May 3.—"Which will you have, boys, milk or cream?" queried John Williams, according to members of Denver's bootleg squad who called at Williams' home.

The officers, slightly puzzled, inquired of Williams, who, they said, was a bit drowsy himself, what the difference was in the bovine liquids.

According to the testimony of the officers in police court, Williams informed them that "cream" was real rye whiskey, while "milk" was just plain "moonshine." They ordered both.

The officers confiscated two milk crocks filled with liquid that never came from a cow and arrested Williams on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

MARRIAGE IN COLLEGE "SOCIAL CATASTROPHE"

WILMINGTON, Del., May 3.—Physical education in Vassar College in the last ten years has caused the height of the average student to increase 1 1/4 inches, has added 2 inches to girth measurements, and has added an extra size to the hands and feet, according to a statement made here by Henry Noble MacCracken, president of the institution. Dr. MacCracken was addressing the parents of the students who attend Tower Hall School.

The reason that only 50 per cent of those who enter Vassar finish the course is not due to lack of mentality. Dr. MacCracken stated, but often to what he called the social catastrophe of marriage attacking the students before they had completed the course.

RECIPIENTS SELLING FOOD SENT TO RUSSIA FROM U. S.

MOSCOW, May 3.—Ten-dollar food packages sent to Russia by individuals in America are being sold by the recipients for from 40,000 to 50,000 soviet rubles each in some of the famine districts. This practice has been carried on for some time, despite efforts to check it by the American relief administration.

The American relief administration rules prohibit persons in America or elsewhere buying food packages for individuals in Russia who have funds of their own, but the various offices have no way of telling the circumstances of those to whom packages are addressed.

CHINAMAN SLAYS 3 AND SHOOTS HIMSELF

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 3.—A Chinese laundryman shot and killed three other Chinese here and inflicted a probably fatal wound upon himself. The motive for the shooting is not known.

The murderer also shot and seriously wounded a fourth Chinese. The names of the men involved had not been learned at a late hour. The man who did the shooting had worked until last week with the three whom he killed. The one who was wounded was employed in another laundry.

It was the first murder in this city in more than twenty years. There has been a small Chinese colony here for twenty-five years, and it has had a reputation for peacefulness.

Health Is Beautiful

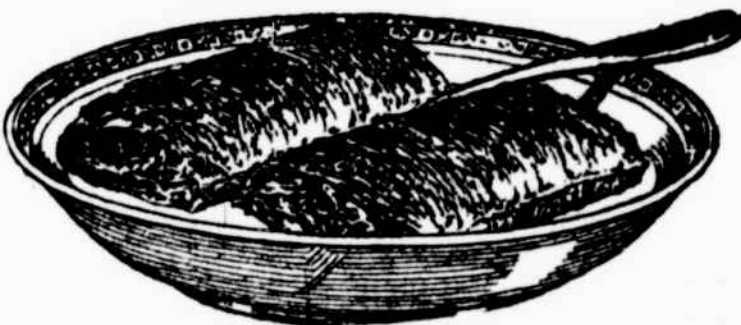

The glow of health gives radiant beauty to the homeliest face. "Good looks" come from proper food and healthful exercise—you can't smear them on with paste or cream. Eat every day. Cut out heavy foods and rich pastries. Shredded Wheat, easily digested, ready-cooked, with green vegetables and fresh fruit, will bring beauty of face and figure. Supplies every element the body needs and its daily use keeps the intestinal tract clean and healthy.

Shredded Wheat

For a warm, nourishing meal heat two Biscuits in the oven to restore their crispness; pour hot milk over them, adding a little cream and a dash of salt. Delicious with sliced bananas, prunes, raisins or canned fruits.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker—a real whole wheat toast—and is eaten with butter or soft cheese.

Still the original process. Body and flavor, not alcoholic content, made Budweiser the favorite. And body and flavor are the same today.
